The Seahawks officially placed first-round offensive tackle James Carpenter on injured reserve on Thursday.

Carpenter tore the ACL in his left knee during a pass-rush drill in a practice last week,nfl jersey shop,kids nhl jerseys,cheap basketball jerseys, ending his rookie season after nine starts — one at left guard and the last eight at right tackle.

Speaking this week to Minnesota reporters,flag football jersey, Detroit Lions defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh raised the bar considerably for the 2011 season.

"I think next year could be a year that we meet and exceed our expectations,wholesale football jerseys, getting back into the playoffs." Suh said.

I'll have much more to say on that topic next week in our annual season wrap-up package. But my initial thought is the 2011 Lions will go as far as their offense takes them.

[+] EnlargeAP Photo/Mike GrollThe Lions have thrown an NFL-high 24 passes to Calvin Johnson in the end zone.That's right. With quarterback Matthew Stafford sidelined for all but three games this season,nike 2012 nfl,nfl stitched jerseys, we got only a partial glimpse of what this offense could be. Suh has been the anchor of a much-improved defensive line this season,custom football jersey,nfl customized jersey, but the Lions still have plenty of work to do at linebacker and in the secondary before their defense can match the potential of their offense.

For what its' worth,nhl dog jersey,nfl 2012 jerseys, I've been tracking some interesting statistics in our weekly ESPN Stats & Information packets that suggest Lions offensive coordinator Scott Linehan has done an excellent job of utilizing his personnel and making the most out of their skills.

The first is how often Lions quarterbacks have targeted receiver Calvin Johnson. I realize that targets aren't a perfect statistic; press box scorekeepers credit a target on every play,official nfl jersey, even if the ball is clearly thrown away. ESPN's researchers do their best to ignore those types of passes,army football jersey, however,nfl jersey size, and on that scale,design your own nfl jersey,nike nfl equipment gloves, Johnson has had 134 passes thrown his way this season. That total ranks seventh overall in the NFL.

The Lions have also thrown an NFL-high 24 passes to Johnson in the end zone,tcu football jersey,boise state football jersey,discount nfl jerseys, and those passes have resulted in nine of his 12 touchdowns this season.

It sounds simple: Whatever you do,nike nfl jerseys 2012,nfl jersey display case, make sure you prioritize your best player. But opposing defenses are usually in step with that thought process,nike nfl jerseys 2012, and so it's incumbent on the play-caller to distract their attention.

How has Linehan and the Lions ensured Johnson's involvement? I can cite two notes from ESPN Stats & Information that provide at least a partial explanation.

Rookie tailback Jahvid Best has 52 receptions and ranks fifth in the NFL with 544 yards after the catch (YAC). For you rate enthusiasts,womens football jerseys, Best's average of 10.6 post-catch yards ranks fourth in the NFL.

Meanwhile,new nfl jerseys nike,hockey jersey design, quarterback Shaun Hill -- who has played in 10 of the Lions' 15 games -- has the NFL's second-best passer rating on both play-action throws and screens. He has completed 24 of 31 play-action passes,authentic nfl jersey, including four for touchdowns. And Hill's 21 completed screens have gone for a total of 203 yards.

I don't know if a highly efficient short passing game totally explains why the Lions have been able to target Johnson so often this season, make your own college football jersey, nfl jersey, but it suggests an exceptional balance and a promising future -- especially if Stafford inserts his dynamic arm into the lineup on a permanent basis next season.
